

WATERFORD

A CELEBRATION OF MODERN IRISH CRAFT

Like his father, Tom Brennan was born in Waterford City, Ireland and fulfilled a lifelong dream of working for Waterford Crystal. From a young age, Tom aspired to follow in his father's footsteps, by participating in the tradition of fine crystal craftsmanship. Tom's career with Waterford Crystal began with his apprenticeship in 1986, where he mastered the art of crystal glass blowing.

Today, as Spokesperson and Master Artisan, Tom's craft comes to life as he educates and inspires Waterford consumers. One of his key roles is serving as spokesperson for the prestigious Waterford Crystal Times Square Ball.

---

Waterford certifies that this is an original work of art, designed in Ireland and delicately crafted for unmatched brilliance and beauty. The seahorse markings found on this piece of crystal, combined with the signature of the Master Craftsman, guarantees its authenticity.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Tom Brennan". The signature is stylized with a large, flowing "T" and "B".